TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS (TPS) – SUDAN

READY TO STAY

ARE YOU FROM SUDAN?

If you are from Sudan or lived in Sudan you might qualify for temporary protected status (TPS). If you already have TPS, get more information here.

WHAT IS TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS (TPS):

Temporary Protected Status (TPS) is for people who left their home countries because of conflict or natural disasters. The U.S government decides which countries are on the TPS list.

A person with TPS:
- is protected from deportation,
- can work legally in the United States, and
- may travel with permission.

TPS for people from Sudan ends on October 19, 2023. TPS can be extended. The U.S. government announces extensions and when to sign up again ("re-register").

DO YOU QUALIFY FOR TPS?
YOU MAY QUALIFY FOR TPS IF:

- You are from Sudan or you lived in Sudan;
- You came to the U.S. by March 1, 2022; and
- You apply for TPS by October 19, 2023.

NOTE: Some trips outside the U.S., crimes, or other problems can disqualify you from TPS.
